

Poison Gas over Beijing

Today, Beijing saw the most polluted air. The pollution was so bad that we can't see anything. We all know that air pollution is haze weather.

For the past few years, there are so much trash, gas and smoke. And that are the things that make the air pollution.

There are many people that believe that air pollution is bad. Firstly, they say that air pollution makes the earth warm. If the earth becomes warmer, the iceberg will melt to water. And it will add the sea level. At last, it will wash off all of the people.

Secondly, they say that they can't go outside very often. Because of the haze weather, we can't go outside and do some sport. And we all know that's sometimes weather influence your mood. So bad weather gives us a bad mood.

Thirdly pollution is bad for our health. Scientist shows air pollution is bad for our brain, eyes and nose. Especially children and the elderly people.

Someone who lives in Beijing said: "Air pollution makes me angry, I think the government should make the air pollution less."

No Tickets for China

Many people want to buy tickets to go back home for Chinese New Year. People who work in the other place want to buy tickets to go home. There are more than 200,000,000 (two hundred million) people who want to buy tickets to go home. But there are not many tickets, so people can't go home.

The tickets are also too expensive to afford. Many poor people don't have enough money to buy the tickets. So they can't go home. It is very difficult to go back home in Spring festival in China.

Tickets are important to people, because so many people want go to back home at the same time. And there are not enough trains that can take them back home. Many people think that the Government should provide more trains and tickets to take the people who want to go back home in Chinese New Year. New Year is important to Chinese people too.

Many people in china want the country to provide more tickets. A woman said that "Buying a ticket I think is too hard, and I feel so hopeless."

A New Big Fish

Today in the west of China, 5 children were playing in the river and a “big fish” ate them! “I think it is a very big fish!” said an expert. On Tuesday the ‘big fish’ ate some children again. “It’s not good!” said the parents.

Today we caught the ‘big fish.’ It was 20 metres long, 5 metres wide, and weighed 5.5 tons. It looked like a tiger and weighed as much as an elephant.

It can swim fast! It can eat as fast as wolves. Be careful! Maybe it lives in all big rivers!! Look after your children! Don’t let them play in the river!!! Be careful of the “big fish.” If you see the “big fish”, you must call this phone number:119!

Driving to Die

There was a terrible car crash. A twelve-year old boy drove a car and bumped 5 cars.

Actually, the boy's sister drove the car to the car park. She wanted to go to the hospital; she wanted to go inside herself. She left her brother in the, but she didn't lock the car.

The boy was curious about driving a car. When he was driving, the car was out of control, and it made a big mess.

The 5 cars were in big holes, their owners are very angry. They wanted the boy to pay them. But the boy said that the guards asked him to move the car, so he did, and he didn't think about this kind of trouble will happen to him. But the guards said that they just waved at him. The police are finding more clues.

The police say that people should be careful about driving a car, if you didn't have a license or you are not up to 18 years old, please care about our safety.

Beijing Subway News

Today, the government made a new rule; Beijing's subway will stop working on July 30, 2012. Then, people must go to work by a new train. It's a very big train, it can fly over the city, and it is very safe. When you sit on it, you don't feel dizzy. "How cozy the new train is," said a passenger.

Not all of the people like this rule, but the government thinks it is good for people's health. Now, most of the people are going to work by subway, but the subway is always too crowded, so it is bad for people's health.

Although the new train is not crowded, it is very slow. Scientists are busy improving the new train, but the people can't wait any more. So, the government decided Beijing's subway will stop working on July 30, 2013.

That's good news and many of the people are very happy. They don't want to travel by a very slow train to work.

Business Brains

Today, Last month, all the clothing stores were closed due to sustained losses in business. On Guomao Road there was just one clothing store that wasn't closed. Two weeks later, the boss of the sole clothing store got rich.

So that's how it was! When people knew there was just one store, all the people went to this store and bought all the things that they had. The people were all afraid that this store would close. The owner of the store cut the price of clothes, to spur people to buy many more things. When the owners of the other stores saw that, they opened their stores right away. The people who had a lot of things didn't want to buy anything.

So if you want to manage a company, please catch the opportunity.
